

THE DAILY APPEAL.

TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 21, 1858.

TENNESSEE. State Bonds sold in New York, on the 12th instant, at $125; which is the last sale of our bonds reported.

We are indebted to GIDEON PARTON & CO. for the latest number of "Parker's Spirit of the Times."

We thank DAVIS, WILLIAMS & CO., for their paper. Also, W. P. HILLIARD, clerk of the Pacific, and the accompanying McKEEVER, of the Adams Express.

A CHANGE.—Who we think of the blind swine writer of the two last days, is a question that will be asked by many. We are not surprised to find that January, the thermometer indicated eight degrees below zero.

WE invite attention to the card of MESSRS. FAHEY & UNTHORN, Attorneys at Law, who will hereafter practice their profession as partners. They are gentlemen of experience and talents in their profession, and merit a portion of public patronage.

MR. PEARTY has sold a box of books will continue for a few days longer, only, at Col. Loring's, 100½ Main street. The first fine stock of books ever offered for sale in this city, and is selling them out for about half the usual prices.

Mr. PEARTY, the author of "The Tipping Ordinance," will give a few of his grand entertainments at Old Fellow's Hall during the next week, which will be duly announced through the newspapers.

We invite attention to the card of ALDERMAN HUGHES, who has the honor of being one of the proprietors of the drinking establishment of the "Tipping House," without the name of it, in the third-rate taverns or restaurants kept within the same doors under independent licensees."

Alderman Copeland moved the passage of the Ordinance, substituting 11 o'clock for 9 o'clock as the hour of closing.

The whole world was agitated.

The House Squadrone.
